

Omissions and Additions

Now that you have mapped your current school improvement plan against the school improvement components, there may be some activities that were not addressed. These usually fall into the categories below. List each activity under its proper description and identify its component type as reform strategy, professional development, safety net, etc.

Omissions and Additions
The things we planned to do, that we are not doing (but we still intend to do):
Things that we are doing that we never captured in our plan:
The things we planned to do, that we are not doing (and we do not intend to do):